Amcor – Berry combination: US DOJ Antitrust clearance

SUBJECT/// Amcor-Berry combination: US Antitrust clearance
TO/// All Amcor colleagues
DISTRIBUTION/// March 11, 2025 @1700 CET/0800 ET

Team,

Just a quick note to continue keeping you updated on how our planned combination with Berry Global is progressing. Last night we received antitrust clearance from the US Department of Justice, another important legal and contractual condition to advance in the process.

Once combined, the future Amcor will have approximately half of its revenue in the US, so it is easy to see the significance of reaching this milestone. With every successful step, our exciting future as one combined company gets closer and more tangible. We are well on track to closing the transaction by middle of this calendar year.

We continue to make good progress in obtaining the remaining regulatory approvals. Until closing, let's please remember we are two independent companies and that it remains business-as-usual. The best way every colleague can contribute is by staying safe, delighting customers and delivering on our commitments.

Thanks for all of your efforts,

PK

Peter Konieczny
Chief Executive Officer

Important Information for Investors and Shareholders

This communication does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy or exchange any securities or a solicitation of any vote or approval in any jurisdiction. It does not constitute a prospectus or prospectus equivalent document. No offering of securities shall be made except by means of a prospectus meeting the requirements of Section 10 of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended. In connection with the proposed transaction between Amcor plc (“Amcor”) and Berry Global Group (“Berry”), on January 13, 2025, Amcor filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) a registration statement on Form S-4, as amended on January 21, 2025, containing a joint proxy statement of Amcor and Berry that also constitutes a prospectus of Amcor. The registration statement was declared effective by the SEC on January 23, 2025 and Amcor and Berry commenced mailing the definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus to their respective shareholders on or about January 23, 2025. INVESTORS AND SECURITY HOLDERS OF AMCOR AND BERRY ARE URGED TO READ THE DEFINITIVE JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS AND OTHER DOCUMENTS FILED OR THAT WILL BE FILED WITH THE SEC CAREFULLY AND IN THEIR ENTIRETY BECAUSE THEY CONTAIN OR WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION. Investors and security holders may obtain free copies of the registration statement and the definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus and other documents filed with the SEC by Amcor or Berry through the website maintained by the SEC at <http://www.sec.gov>. Copies of the documents filed with the SEC by Amcor are available free of charge on Amcor’s website at amcor.com under the tab “Investors” and under the heading “Financial Information” and subheading “SEC Filings.” Copies of the documents filed with the SEC by Berry are available free of charge on Berry’s website at berryglobal.com under the tab “Investors” and under the heading “Financials” and subheading “SEC Filings.”

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

The information contained in this Current Report includes certain statements that are “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of federal securities laws. Some of these forward-looking statements can be identified by words like “anticipate,” “approximately,” “believe,” “commit,” “continue,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “forecast,” “intend,” “may,” “outlook,” “plan,” “potential,” “possible,” “predict,” “project,” “target,” “seek,” “should,” “will,” or “would,” the negative of these words, other terms of similar meaning or the use of future dates. Examples of forward-looking statements include projections as to the anticipated benefits of the Merger as well as statements regarding the impact of the Merger on Amcor’s and Berry’s business and future financial and operating results and prospects, the amount and timing of synergies from the Merger and the closing date for the Merger.

Forward-looking statements are neither historical facts nor assurances of future performance. Instead, they are based only on management's current beliefs, expectations and assumptions regarding the future of Amcor's and Berry's business, future plans and strategies, projections, anticipated events and trends, the economy and other future conditions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict and many of which are outside of Amcor's and Berry's control. Amcor's, Berry's and the combined company's actual results and financial condition may differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements as a result of various factors. These factors include, among other things, (i) the termination of or occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the Merger Agreement or the inability to complete the Merger on the anticipated terms and timetable, (ii) the inability to complete the Merger due to the failure to satisfy any condition to closing in a timely manner or at all, or the risk that a regulatory approval that may be required for the Merger is delayed, is not obtained or is obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated, (iii) the risks related to Amcor and Berry being restricted in the operation of their respective businesses while the Merger Agreement is in effect, (iv) the ability to obtain financing in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger on favorable terms, if at all, (v) the ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the Merger, which may be affected by, among other things, the ability of the combined company to maintain relationships with its customers and retain its management and key employees, (vi) the ability of the combined company to achieve the synergies contemplated by the Merger or such synergies taking longer to realize than expected, (vii) costs related to the Merger, (viii) the ability of the combined company to execute successfully its strategic plans, (ix) the ability of the combined company to promptly and effectively integrate the Amcor and Berry businesses, (x) the risk that the credit rating of the combined company may be different from what Amcor and Berry expect, (xi) the diversion of management's time and attention from ordinary course business operations to the consummation of the Merger and integration matters, (xii) potential liability resulting from pending or future litigation relating to the Merger and (xiii) the risks, uncertainties and assumptions described in the section entitled "Solicitation Considerations." The foregoing review of important factors should not be construed as exhaustive and should be read in conjunction with the other cautionary statements that are included elsewhere. Additional information concerning risks, uncertainties and assumptions can be found in Amcor's and Berry's respective filings with the SEC, including the risk factors discussed in Amcor's and Berry's most recent Annual Reports on Form 10-K, as updated by their Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and other filings with the SEC.

Explanatory Note: The following communication was posted on the LinkedIn of Amcor plc on March 11, 2025.

We have taken another important step toward combining with @Berry Global by receiving US antitrust clearance. Our continued progress puts us on track for closing in mid-calendar year 2025 to create a global leader in consumer and healthcare packaging solutions.
